EXPENDITURE.

6. II. Head Office.—It should have been explained why the budget or Nonavinkere provides for an increase of Rs 3 over the sanctioned estimate for 1900-1901 on account of the District office establishment. The omission should be supplied, pending which the provision will stand.

7. III. Collection (b) House and Mohatarfa Taxes.—No provision has been made in the budgets of Kunigal and Huliyurdurga on account of potgi or remuneration payable to the shanbhog and patel for the collection of house and mohatarfa taxes while the remaining budgets provide for the same at 5 per cent under Government Proceedings No. 12057-65—L. F. 295-96, dated 30th May 1900, for various periods as noted in the margin. The President is requested to submit a separate reference explaining the circumstances under which remuneration was not paid to the village servants for 2, 3 and 4 years and why the 2 per cent commission authorized in Government Proceedings No 5954-63—L. F. 57-92, dated 31st October 1892, may not be allowed in respect of collections made in 1898-99 in Municipalities where mohatarfa was excluded in fixing the potgi. Pending the receipt of such reference and the issue of final orders thereon, the provisions will be allowed to stand but should not be utilized.
